We will tell you the sources of the information we collect about you. We will tell you what measures we take to secure that information.

We first define some terms:

Non-public personal information means information about you that we collect in connection with providing a financial product or service to you. Nonpublic personal information does not include information that is available from the public sources, such as telephone directories or government records. Hereafter, we will use the term "information" to mean nonpublic personal information as defined in this section.

An affiliate is a company we own or control.

A non-affiliate is a person we do not employ or a company that is not an affiliate of ours. This is also known as non-affiliated third party, or simply, an "other party".

The Information We Collect

We collect information about you from the following sources:

Information you give us on applications or other forms.

Information about your transactions with us.

Information about your transactions with other parties.

Information from a consumer reporting agency.

The Confidentiality, Security and Integrity of Your Information

We restrict access to information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to protect this information.
